Stupendous Sports: Fantastic Football

Illustrated by Matt Cherry

11th August 2022 | £6.99 | 144pp | 9+
978-1-913102-91-3 (paperback)

Fantastic Football is the second book in the Stupendous Sports series.

Hilarious, but factual too, Fantastic Football is as much about the spirit of the beautiful game as the rules.

From the origins of football, when matches went on for days, to today's fascinating facts and amazing stories. Plus a spotlight on what makes the greatest players so great.

With features on the rules, player positions and skills and tricks, Fantastic Football is a team read.

Stupendous Sports: Rampaging Rugby

August 2021 | £6.99 | 128pp | 9+
978-1-913-102-60-9 (paperback)

First in MG series Stupendous Sports, which aims to do for PE what Horrible Histories did for Year 7 History.

Each chapter has cartoons, player tips your coach won't tell you, irreverent explanations (accurate where it matters), fascinating facts and – yes – funny stories. The aim is to teach kids about the sport but with a light touch – learning just as much about the spirit of the game as the rules.

Robin Bennett has obsessed over sport since losing both his front teeth in a ruck aged 12. He is an author and entrepreneur who has written several books for children and on business.

In the chaotic last days of World War II, Jakob and Kizzy are tricked into a journey that goes very wrong. Their guardians at the Lipizzaner stables think they are helping to fetch some rare horses, but the con artist wants them to get over the border. Far from home, they are attacked and only just escape. They hide in a seemingly deserted mansion, but someone fires at them. Investigating, they find it shelters not only forty abandoned horses but a small band of lost children, displaced by the war.

With the Nazis and Russians heading towards them, how can Kizzy and Jakob keep them safe and get them all home?

Cover design: Anne Glenn

15th September 2022 | £7.99 |

314pp | 9-12 fiction

978-1-913102-95-1 (paperback)

One year on from the day the shadows shifted and began to show not people's shapes, but their truest selves, best friends Teddy, Betsy and Effie plan to risk all and watch the winter sun rise over Copperwell, in defiance of the Shadow Order.

But from their hidden vantage point the three shocked friends witness a mysterious woman shout a dire warning, before being arrested, beaten and dragged away in handcuffs.

The event leads them on an extraordinary series of dangerous adventures as they discover more about the disturbance in the natural world surrounding Copperwell, battle to save their city and start to recognise their truest selves.

Rebecca F. John is the author of four books for adults including The Haunting of Henry Twist, which was shortlisted for the Costa First Novel Award. 'I'll stop listening in ten seconds,' I say. 'Starting now.'

'Fine,' he says. He looks around one more time to see if anyone might overhear us, and then pauses again.

'Ella Quinn ... has a crush on you.'

Girls in Hazel's school are being harassed by an anonymous person online, someone who seems to know all about their insecurities and dreams. With no one willing to stand up and face the bully, how will Hazel be able to prove her suspicions?

Hazel Hill is Gonna Win This One confronts bullying, both online and in person, to give children the power to stand up for themselves and speak out against harassment.

Maggie Horne is a writer and editor who grew up near Toronto, Canada. She studied at Oxford Brookes University, where she obtained both a BA in Publishing Media and a wife, which was a pretty good deal. She's now a dog and human mother living outside of Ottawa with her family. Her writing has been featured in Catapult and on Medium's Mental Health and LGBTQ pages. Hazel Hill is Gonna Win this One is her first novel.

The Red Gloves and Other Stories

September 2021 | £12.99 | 192pp | 9-12 fiction
978-1-913102-68-5 (hardback)

Two stepbrothers share one nightmare; red gloves that reach for your throat; a changing room where a stranger asks to swap lives with you; the dangers of owing a favour, and a ghost in the rain. An expert storyteller weaves nine spells in this unmissable, fairytale inspired collection. Fear mixed with wit, heart and magic.

Catherine Fisher is a poet and children's author from south Wales. Her bestselling books include the Clockwork Crow trilogy, The Snow-Walker trilogy, the Oracle trilogy, the Incarceron series and the Chronoptika series.

The Clockwork Crow trilogy

Seren Rhys is on her way to a new life at the remote house of Plas-y Fran, but when she gets there the happy family Christmas she had hoped for turns out to be an illusion. Because Tomos has been missing for a year and a day, and if the strange and dangerous Family have really taken him, who would be mad enough to try and get him back? Armed with a talking bird who might not be telling the truth, a magical snow-globe and her own indomitable courage, Seren sets off on a journey into a midnight world of snow and stars, to an ice palace unlocked only by a Door of Blood and Tears.

The Myriad Mysteries of Eartha Quicksmith Book 2

July 2022 | £7.99 | 320pp | 9-12 fiction
978-1-913102-87-6 (paperback)

Welcome back to faraway school of invention, Quicksmiths College of Strange Energy, where Kip and his friends must take a rollercoaster journey through time and space to uncover new secrets and defeat old enemies.

With the Ark of Ideas resisting even Professor Steampunk's attempts to learn its secrets, the team is at a loss as to how to fulfil the mission set by renaissance genius Eartha Quicksmith. But then a dream discovery and a freak accident send Kip and Timmi hurtling on a dangerous quest through impossible worlds. Can they escape the Myriad Pirates, and can Leela and Albert help them unravel Eartha's new riddles and find their way safely home again?

Full of adventure, invention, teamwork and a large helping of sideways thinking, this is an action-packed, riddle-filled sequel.

Loris Owen has lived in Europe, Africa and the Middle East. A former communications and content specialist, her home is now in Kent where she runs a small business and also spends her days hunting for interesting combinations of words.
